JUDGES ANNOUNCED.

Men Available for Fairs and Stock Shows.

Official judges for the various Texas fairs for Jersey cattle entries have been recommended by the Texas Jersey Cattle Club. C. M. Evans of the A. and M. College and secretary of the club, announces that the following men will be available as judges for Texas fairs during the season this fall:

H. G. Van Pelt, Waterloo, Iowa; J. W. Ridgway, professor dairy husbandry, A. & M. College, College Station; C. M. Evans, College Station; DuPont B. Lyon, Sherman; B. F. Fraisher, Cleburne; J. Riley Green, Wolfe City; Marshall Terrell, San Antonio; W. C. Lebaron, Sherman; Fred Jones, Gatesville; Don T. Griswold, Bellville, and J. Walter Downs, McKinney.

In recommending this list of judges the club had in mind not only the securing of judges who would be capable of making correct awards in such a way as to make the Jersey Clubs educational, but also the possibility of providing at a very low cost, capable judges for the various county fairs in the State.

"TWELFTH NIGHT" AT A. AND M. Devereux and Woodland Players to be There on May 2.

In line with the widespread interest that is being taken in the Tercentenary of the death of William Shakespeare, President Dizzell of the A. and M. College announces that Clifford Devereux and his company of Woodland players will present "The Twelfth Night" and Richard Brinsley Sheridan's "The Critic," at the College, May 2, matinee and evening performance. Especial stress on the Elizabethan plays is being laid by the Devereux company during these three weeks, however.

The Devereux company will play at the University of Texas and at A. and M. College only in Texas.

This company is composed of twenty-five players and is now in its fourth season.

The Wheat

Must Be Sound

because all of its rich nutritive elements, including the "vital" mineral salts, are required in making Grape-Nuts food.

Some grain foods, as is well known, excel over others—to make Grape-Nuts as near perfection as possible no pains are spared in every step of its making to produce the best and highest nutriment.

Grape-Nuts

is more and more becoming the favorite American breakfast dish.

Made of whole wheat and malted barley, this famous pure food supplies all the rich nutriment of the grains, fully baked and easily digestible.

Grape-Nuts has a delicious nutlike flavor—is always ready to serve direct from the package; and with cream or milk is a well-balanced ration that fills the lack of necessary elements in the usual diet of many.
